My birthday

Birthday is a special holiday in Russia. Many people are looking forward to this holiday. My friends bring gifts.

My mum always makes me a big birthday cake. We have a table full of food, snacks, different salads and mashed potato.

We invite friends and play board games with them. My mum decorates the house with balloons and other things. I blow out candles on my birthday cake and make a wish that will definitely come true.